VERIFIED COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, by and through his counsel, on personal knowledge as to his own actions and on information and belief as to the actions, capabilities and motivations of others, hereby alleges the following:

INTRODUCTION and BACKGROUND

1. Plaintiff is the copyright owner of five literary and visual works and the holder of certificates of registration for each issued by the United States Copyright Office. This case arises from the bad faith copyright infringement of Plaintiff's copyrighted works by anonymous, scofflaw Internet website operators who operate what they call "a satirical wiki" called encyclopediadramatica.se and who state they are "physically located somewhere between Nigeria and Romania... [and are bound by] no legislation regarding international copyright." According to Defendants' terms of service, posters to encyclopediadramatica.se grant them "a perpetual, irrevocable, worldwide, non-exclusive, royalty-free, sublicensable and transferable license" for, among other things, commercial purposes including for promotion of their own products or "third party products or services." Among other things Defendants sell merchandise to US consumers including tee shirts offered on their Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/encyclopediadramaticase/>. Defendants' published policy is that neither lawsuits for defamation nor takedown requests under the Digital Millenium Copyright Act can affect them. There is no registered address or location for Encyclopediadramatica.se. Defendants do not disclose on either their website or any of their domain registrations the identity and contact information of the website's administrator. Exhibit A are true and accurate copies of Defendants' privacy policy, copyright policy, pseudonym list of officers and managers, and removal policy as of October 28, 2016.

2. The works at issue and their respective registrations are as follows:

- a. Literary work consisting of text sent from account "mitcarpediem". US Copyright Office Registration No. TXu001816801 dated February 15, 2011;
- b. Literary work starting "Hey! Let" and ending "?Ciao, bella!". US Copyright Office Registration No. TXu001816801 dated August 16, 2012;
- c. Literary work starting "I'm laughing?" US Copyright Office Registration No. TXu001816802 dated February 15, 2011;
- d. Visual material Photographic work depicting performer in beaver costume with MIT shirt. US Copyright Office Registration No. VAu001058248 dated February 15, 2011;
- e. Visual material "Websites of Jonathan Monsarrat." US Copyright Office Registration No. VA0001876289 dated May 20, 2013.

3. The infringing material, both literary and visual works, first appeared on the website, www.encyclopediadramatica.com; and, in January 2011, that website's then designated DMCA agent initially complied with Plaintiff's takedown notice under the Digital Millenium Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. § 512 and removed the infringing material. However, a counter-designation under 17 U.S.C. § 512 (g), claiming rights in the material, was filed by a person who upon information and belief had posted the infringing materials on the website.

4. On February 15, 2011, Plaintiff filed an action in this Court, case 1:11-cv-10248-DPW, for copyright infringement against the individual, a New York City resident, who had filed the counter-designation seeking both an injunction and damages for her unauthorized copying and public display of Plaintiff's copyrighted works on, among other places, the website, www.encyclopediadramatica.com. On February 1, 2012, this Court, the Hon. Douglas P. Woodlock presiding, entered a default judgment. A true and accurate copy of the 2012 judgment is Exhibit B.

5. Upon information and belief, on or about March 21, 2012, Defendants migrated the country domain for the encyclopediadramatica website to Sweden.

6. After that migration the materials adjudged by this Court to infringe Plaintiff's copyrights reappeared, and continue to be published and/or publicly displayed, on Defendants' website at www. Encyclopediadramatica.se.

7. Upon information and belief based on a search on February 22, 2017 of the United States Copyright Office at no time has Encyclopediadramatica.se had a designated agent to receive notifications of claimed infringement as required by 17 U.S.C. §512 (c)(2). Plaintiff's requests first to the then domain registrar and subsequently to the then hosting service for Encyclopediadramatica.se to remove the infringing materials have been ignored.

8. Defendants have registered and are using the internet domain name of "encyclopediadramatica.se" with a stated intent of evading applicable copyright and other laws.

9. Defendants are engaged in an intentional, knowingly unauthorized reproduction and public display of Plaintiff's copyrights.

NATURE OF THE ACTION

10. This is a civil action seeking damages and equitable relief for copyright infringement under the Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. §§ 101 et seq.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

11. This Court has jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338(a), and 17 U.S.C. § 502.

12. Defendants are subject to the jurisdiction of this Court pursuant to Mass. Gen. Laws, Chapter 223A §§ 3(a) and (c) because: (1) they committed tortious acts outside of Massachusetts, including by infringing on Plaintiff's copyrights; (2) the cause of action arose out of the publication of a website that is continuously available to Massachusetts residents and caused tortious injury in Massachusetts to Plaintiff; (3) the tortious acts caused and continue to cause injury to Plaintiff who resides and does business in Massachusetts; (4) upon information and belief because according to their privacy policy Defendants maintain records showing the "approximated location" and/or because of its agent's maintenance of a "cookie" maintaining a record of displays of the infringing materials to users, Defendants not only expected or should have reasonably expected their acts to have consequences in Massachusetts, but specifically intended to harm Plaintiff in Massachusetts; and, (5) upon information and belief, Defendants derive revenue from interstate or international commerce.

13. Alternatively Defendants are subject to the jurisdiction of this Court pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(k)(2). Upon information and belief Defendants have targeted their infringing website to a United States audience, they market their website to United States users, and they have entered into various agreements with third parties in the United States in furtherance of their unlawful activities, including one or more domain name registrars, and Internet Service Providers.

14. Venue is proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1391(b), (c)(3) and/or 28 U.S.C. § 1400(a) in that Defendants are entities or individuals subject to personal jurisdiction in this District. Defendants, are not, upon information and belief, residents of the United States.

THE PARTIES

15. The Plaintiff, Jonathan Monsarrat, is an individual who is an entrepreneur residing in Cambridge Massachusetts.

16. On information and belief, Defendants operate the website encyclopediadramatica.se from unknown locations outside the United States.

17. Does 1-5 are individuals who, along with gotper6061-00001, own and/or operate the website encyclopediadramatica.se, but whose identities and addresses are currently unknown to the Plaintiff.

18. Upon information and belief based on his LinkedIn™ account as of February 23, 2017, from April 2011 to the present the Defendant Brian Zaiger has been employed by Edrama Limited of Stockholm, Sweden as “Administrator” of “the website Encyclopedia Dramatica” and lives or works in the “Greater Boston Area.”

Defendants’ efforts to evade Copyright Enforcement in the United States

19. From and after obtaining a registration of the domain name encyclopediadramatica.se in 2012 to date, Defendants have used six different anonymous acronyms to identify themselves as the owner/holders of this website; from September 10, 2015 to date, the registered domain owner has been “gotper3946-00001,” “gotper1461-00001,” and most currently the Defendant “gotper6061-00001.” The relevant registration record contains no disclosure of any email or physical address for any one or more of “Admin contact,” “Technical contact,” or “Billing contact” for the Defendant gotper6061-00001. See Exhibit C (Whois registration record for encyclopediadramatica.se and IP Address 104.25.57.111, and Domain Report for encyclopediadramatica.se).

20. The .se domain is administered by the Internet Society of Sweden, headquartered in Stockholm Sweden which upon information and belief allows the Defendants as domain owners to change registrars freely and at any time. From January 1, 2015, to date the Defendants have had four different registrars for their website encyclopediadramatica.se with the current registrar for the Defendants D/B/A gotper6061-00001 being Key-Systems Gmbh, a German company. Upon information and belief it is not necessary for a website operator to have any association with Sweden in order to acquire and use a “.se” domain name.

21. The registered Internet Protocol (“IP”) address” for the website www.encyclopediadramatica.se is 104.25.57.111 the server for which is physically located in Phoenix, Arizona. The IP address and server belong to Cloudflare, Inc., a Delaware corporation headquartered in San Francisco, California (“Cloudflare”). See Exhibit C.

22. Defendants employ the services of Cloudflare, as an Internet Service Provider, upon information and belief, for among other purposes, to conceal the location of Defendants’ server(s) and thereby enable Defendants to evade the Copyright Act. According to Defendants’ privacy policy, “Cloudflare stores a small cookie in your browser for defining the date you last visited the site, thus deciding to send you a new cached copy of a piece of content or making no changes.”

23. From October 6, 2014 to date, while Defendants have registered, upon information and belief, five different pseudonym owners of their website and had five different registrars of their domain name Cloudflare has continuously provided the authoritative nameservers for Defendants’ website providing a so-called “pass-through security service” that acts as a “middleman” that sits between Defendants’ website and the users who interact with it.

24. On November 9, 2016, Plaintiff submitted a copyright complaint notice to Cloudflare including Plaintiff’s sworn attestation of the registration of copyrights, the 2012 judgment and the continued and ongoing infringing display on Cloudflare’s server and IP address. In his copyright complaint notice Plaintiff also asked Cloudflare to give notice of his infringement claim to Cloudflare’s customer, the otherwise anonymous Defendants.

25. On February 7, 2017, Cloudflare’s “Legal Team” informed Plaintiff that “Cloudflare is a reverse proxy, pass-through security service and a content distribution network (CDN) ...[that Cloudflare] is not a hosting provider ... [and does] not have access to our customer’s content.” Cloudflare “suggest[ed] that ... [Plaintiff] get in direct contact with the website owner or the hosting provider.” Cloudflare did not inform Plaintiff of any contact information for its customer, namely the Defendants, but did inform Plaintiff of the identity of Defendants’ current hosting provider, NationalNet, Inc., located in Marietta, Georgia.

COUNT ONE

SECONDARY COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT

26. Plaintiff repeats and realleges every allegation contained in paragraphs 1 through 25 as if fully set forth herein.

27. The Defendants knew and/or had reason to know of the direct infringement of Plaintiff's copyrights.

28. Despite actual knowledge and/or constructive knowledge that infringing materials have been, and continue to be, published and/or publicly displayed to users by means of their website, Defendants continued to store copies of Plaintiff's copyrighted works on their servers and then via its agent's servers in the United States display those copies to users in the United States.

29. Defendants knowingly cause and otherwise materially contribute to these unauthorized publications and public displays of Plaintiff's copyrighted works.

30. Defendants, without permission or consent of the Plaintiff, have engaged in unauthorized reproduction, distribution and public displays of Plaintiff's registered copyrights. 33. Defendants are vicariously liable for this actionable infringement. Defendants have the right and ability to supervise and control the infringing activities that occur through the use of their website, and upon information and belief based on their website's Copyright and privacy terms of use and their offering for sale of merchandise on their Facebook page derive financial benefit from re-publication and/or other public display of material posted on their website. Defendants proclaim they are not bound by the Copyright Act and have failed and/or refused to comply with Plaintiff's takedown demands.

34. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' willful infringement of Plaintiff's copyrights and exclusive rights under copyright, Plaintiff is entitled to the maximum statutory damages, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(c)(2), in the amount of $150,000 with respect to each work infringed, or such other amounts as may be proper under 17 U.S.C. § 504(c). In the alternative, at Plaintiff's election pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(b), Plaintiff is entitled to his actual damages, including Defendants' profits from infringement, in amounts to be proven at trial.

35. Plaintiff is entitled to his costs, including an award of reasonable attorneys' fees, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 505.

36. Defendants do not qualify for protection of any the safe harbor provisions of 17 U.S.C. § 512.

Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law. Pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 502, Plaintiff is entitled to a preliminary injunction and a permanent injunction prohibiting infringement of Plaintiffs' copyrights and exclusive rights under copyright.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants as follows:

1. For a declaration that Defendants have willfully infringed and continue to willfully infringe Plaintiff's registered copyrights.
2. For such equitable relief under Titles 17 and 28, and this Court's inherent equitable powers, as is necessary to prevent or restrain infringement of Plaintiffs' copyrights, including preliminary and permanent injunctions requiring Defendants and their officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and others in active concert or participation with each or any of them to:
 - a. cease infringing, or causing, enabling, facilitating, encouraging, promoting and inducing or participating in the infringement of, any of Plaintiffs' copyrights.
3. For statutory damages pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(c), in the amount of $150,000 per infringed work, arising from Defendants' willful violations of Plaintiff's rights under the Copyright Act or, in the alternative, at Plaintiff's election pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(b), Plaintiff's actual damages, including Defendants' profits from infringement, in amounts to be proven at trial.
4. For an accounting, the imposition of a constructive trust, restitution of Defendants' unlawful proceeds from copyright infringement, and damages according to proof.
5. For Plaintiff's costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 505.

6. For prejudgment and postjudgment interest; and
7. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

DATED: February 24, 2017

De facto acceptance

In order to use, browse, edit or connect to ED, you must accept our policies. If you don't conform to them, you should leave promptly.

Situations

Now, we are going to depict the ways your user data is stored with us and how we will share it with third parties.

On wiki

This is data related with <https://encyclopedia.dramatica.se>, our network main site and wiki.

Email

We will never give away or sell your email, but we reserve the right to send you email whenever we want for whatever reason we please.

Advertisement

We will never sell nor share your information with third parties for advertisement. ED's demographics are well known and no more additional data is required. All the ads are hosted on our network and the links within them can share some information with them when clicked, such as:

- Hour of link clicking
- IP of user
 - Country
 - Approximated location (not very accurate)
- Browser used
- Screen resolution
- OS used

This is gathered only when the link is clicked.

All the data given is what you give in every site you visit, and it may be used by the advertisers to make impersonal statistics of their campaign.

Cookies

There are two main cookies when visiting ED's wiki.

- Cloudflare cache's
- MediaWiki's

Cloudflare stores a small cookie in your browser for defining the date you last visited the site, thus deciding whether to send you a new cached copy of a piece of content or making no changes.

Also, MediaWiki stores a cookie for setting up a "user session" when you log in, bound to your user account. Ergo, we can provide more accurate support, our blocks are more effective and you don't need to log in every time you close the site.

CheckUser

CheckUser is a tool for getting IPs, UserAgents and XFF headers from users, and its associated edits. It can only be used by two staff members in the bureaucrat usergroup. It is used cautiously for fighting wiki vandalism and for keeping disruptive users banned.

Articles

We already have a strong article content policy, but, there are some things that you must understand:

- Content is usually kept forever, and only the bureaucrats can hide it (either way, it could be mirrored before then)
- We mostly never remove content

- We are a satirical wiki based in a country without legislation for most of the crimes we'd be accused of if we weren't satirical. No DMCA's can take content down nor lawsuits for defamation and such actions cannot affect ED.
- We are very unreserved, and our users are too, so don't expect very civil messages.
- Removing content without permission is usually useless.
- We have zero liability for the content our users publish.

Media

We remove content as quickly as possible that is associated with:

- Child pornography
- Warez

Porn, sadistic images and other content is usually not deleted. We are very permissive.

Legal

We are based offshore with no legislation regarding international copyright, defamation and many other things.

We are a satirical website and no content coming from us should be taken seriously. Also:

Satire is a kind of humor, along with parody. These fall under the fair use clause of copyrighted material and this is valid in most courts worldwide.

We are not liable for any of the content our users post. Wikis are open to anyone.

On Forum

- to be done

On IRC

Our IRC is located at irc.wtfux.org, which is not owned by ED. It has its own set of policies and rules. We recommend that you learn them for yourself.

Encyclopedia Dramatica:Removal policy

Article Removal Requests

Before sending us an e-mail, please check if the article in question meets any of these criteria. Staff are bound to follow this and will not remove any article unless it meets one of these criteria. Offending material may be edited instead of removing the entire article, staff have discretion.

If you send us some stupid threat about your lawyer or how you're going to DDoS us then we're not going to listen to you, regardless of content. Our staff did not write the article, so do not treat us like we did. Respect goes both ways.

Bold items require revision/file flushing as well.

- Indecent image of someone under the age of 18 years old
- SSN or NI # posted
- Bank account numbers
- Personal passwords, addresses, phone numbers, email addresses, or names/accounts of friends/family members who don't belong in the article. Despite what happened in the past, ED does not host dox on it any longer. We're a satire site, not a shitty attack site.

DMCA and other petty legal threats you may throw at us most likely do not apply. The DMCA was written to protect copyright holders against piracy, not because someone posted some old MySpace photos of yours that you forgot about. We will report any misuse of the DMCA to the cyberpolice. Remember, this is not YouTube, you cannot claim copyright of material that someone else wrote, even if it is about you. The DMCA does not work that way. Read a book, or at least the Wikipedia article on it, before trying to use the Digital Millennium Copyright Act to remove content that you do not own or have released into the public domain.

If the article does not match any of these criteria then your e-mail will be removed and future requests ignored.

If your article/file does apply, e-mail us at contact <at> encyclopediadramatica.se

Image Deletion Policy

- Do not delete duplicate images. You could be destroying backlinks and Google image search results when you do this. Instead, use the `{{information|duplicate=[sort key]}}` template to label them as copies.
- Sexually explicit cartoons/Rule 34 pics do not get deleted unless they are blatant CP, as in containing toddlers performing any type of sexual acts. Pedophilia is not welcome on ED.
- Nudes that were publicly posted are legal to republish on ED, but revenge porn is not allowed.
- Cartoons lampooning bestiality are acceptable, but actual photos showing human-animal sexual interaction do not belong on ED.
- Gore/death photos of humans and/or animals do not get removed on account of morality.
- Author-requested image removal requires admin approval, but is generally granted because it prevents the abandoned photo from ending up in the Unused Files vault to rot for all eternity.

Article Deletion Policy

- The only articles subject for immediate deletion are shitty attack articles against staff (don't confuse satire with a shitty attack article), spam/advertisements, unbridled shit posts (usually under 3 sentences and never touched again), revenge porn posts, and anything else included in the ED is not page.
- New articles bearing a potential subject that are barely touched WIPs are placed in Bad New Articles in hopes that someone will pick them up and turn them around. Add either `{{stub}}` or `{{crapstub}}` to these article as well so they end up in those categories.
- When adding an entry to the BNA, be sure to change the date that you added it so its time in BNA can be tracked. If the article is still in the same shape by the time its entry gets replaced with a new one, just leave it be.
- New articles that read like they were written by an illiterate Uncyclopedian or an angsty 13-year-old should get templates such as `{{cleanup}}` or `{{13yearolds}}` instead of a deathnotice to let people know they need grammar markups or wikified links. There's also the `{{pixplz}}` and `{{needsmoar}}` templates for articles lacking in media, photos, and categories.
- One last side note: do not move abandoned drafts into the author's user space, ED has plenty of space and it isn't gonna kill our image to have a WIP/draft in the main space. Articles don't have to be started in user space, that's optional.
- TL;DR: The goal of ED is to add content, not delete it, so if you're an admin who's removing content on the sole premise that you don't like it or you personally think it's shit, then you're doing it wrong.

Hosting History

DomainTools tracks changes to a domain name's IP address, name server and registrar. These events can be useful signals that may indicate more macro events, including: domain name sales, transfers or deletions; taking a site live with new content; or a change in registration or hosting profile.

Screenshot History

DomainTools captures snapshots of website homepages on regular intervals. This content is useful for researchers to understand how a domain was used at various points in time. Due to the relatively high storage costs of screenshot data, the coverage of screenshot histories is in most cases not as thorough as Whois or hosting data, and this is especially true for dates early in a domain's history.

DomainTools has 9 records collected between May 18, 2012 and Aug 20, 2016.

Connected Domains

Shared IP Address

DomainTools uses proprietary techniques to discover other domain names that are hosted on the same IP address (web host) as EncyclopediaDramatica.se. This is a sample of up to 100 randomly-selected domains from that dataset. Access to this data provides context in cases where knowing associated domain names has value.

The exhaustive list of connected domains by IP address is available in the Reverse IP product at DomainTools.com.

Shared Name Server

DomainTools uses proprietary techniques to discover other domain names that are hosted on the same name server as EncyclopediaDramatica.se. This is a sample of up to 100 randomly-selected domains from that dataset. Access to this data provides context in cases where knowing associated domain names has value.

The exhaustive list of connected domains by name server is available in the Name Server Report product at DomainTools.com.
